2023 Newsletter #23-2 (Mar/Apr)

Subject: Videos

In our 2023 Newsletter #23-1 we explored Podcasts from the Getty Center (audio only). In this newsletter we will look at six Videos. These videos feature artists, or discuss art that our gallery is currently displaying or can acquire (see our 2021 Newsletter #21-1).

Gale Stockwell

Gale W. Stockwell (1907-1983) was an artist hired in 1933 to make a painting of downtown Parkville. The resulting painting spent many years in The White House in Washington, DC, returning to Parkville in 1973. The Parkville Frame Gallery is the only retail business in the metro area licensed to sell prints of this iconic painting.

Undertow

Winslow Homer (1836–1910) is regarded by many as the greatest American painter of the nineteenth century. In this video a number of oil and watercolor paintings created by Homer are reviewed by curators in the Metropolitan Museum of Art (the MET) in New York City. We have reproductions of some of Homer's paintings, and can obtain reproductions of most of the paintings shown in this video.

The Young Shepherdess: William-Adolphe Bouguereau

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7maTyA\_RBGo Run time: 3:02.

William-Adolphe Bouguereau (1825-1905) was a French academic painter. In his realistic genre paintings he used mythological themes, making modern interpretations of classical subjects, with an emphasis on the female human body. During Bouguereau's life he enjoyed significant popularity in France and the United States, was given numerous official honors, and received top prices for his work.

The painting The Young Shepherdess depicts a young woman tending to her flock of sheep as she looks back to the viewer with some curiosity. It calls to mind a simpler life from much simpler times, a time free from the worries of modern urban life.

In the above two videos professional artist Jill Poyerd discusses female artists (see our 2022 Newsletter #22-5). Note the mention in video number two of American artist Elizabeth Jane Gardner who was married to William Bouguereau in 1896.

The Wonderful World of Alphonse Mucha

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=P7xaoxiKYoU> Run time 12:14

Alphonse Mucha

Alfons Maria Mucha (1860–1939) known internationally as Alphonse Mucha, was a Czech painter, illustrator, and graphic artist. He lived in Paris during the Art Nouveau period, and is best known for his distinctly stylized and decorative theatrical posters, particularly those of Sarah Bernhardt.

Mucha's work frequently featured beautiful young women in flowing vaguely Neoclassical looking robes, often surrounded by lush flowers that sometimes formed haloes behind the women's heads. Note: See our March list of selected art titled: "Our Art Advisor's Top Ten Picks for March 2023". You can obtain a copy of the list in the gallery or see it on our website.
